- Guests can choose from the Dun Aluinn wine list which we have curated with our partners WoodWinters, all wines are paid for directly with WoodWinters (at retail prices), and delivery is arranged prior to guest arrival at Dun Aluinn. Dun Aluinn does not charge a corkage fee for this arrangement.
- 5.5 acre estate, mature gardens around the house and remainder of the land is given back to nature for re-wilding
- Fire pit on the Terrace and lovely outside seating and throws.

- Wood fired natural cedar Hot Tub nestled in the woods beside the house – its large enough for 10-12 guests – imported from Finland and a perfect spot in which to relax before the big day!
- Bose surround sound music system in the lounge and sitting room at Dun Aluinn, connected wirelessly to Spotify for dancing in the evening
- Play den for our younger guests, with a great mix of books and toys to keep those little ones happy
- Flowers throughout the lounge and sitting room with wild flowers hand picked from the Estate
- Lighting and candles throughout the dining room

All weddings at Dun Aluinn are exclusive use, which means the house and grounds are exclusively yours for your wedding day allowing you to relax with your family and friends.
